About Lowana

Lowana is an initiative of local parents who established a place where the overall character development of their daughters is nurtured in an environment of friendship and trust. Lowana is managed by the Association for Educational Projects Limited (AEPL), a non-profit organisation focused on promoting educational activities, character development and Christian ideals. The spiritual care of Lowana is entrusted to Opus Dei, a personal Prelature of the Catholic Church, which helps people find God in everyday life.
